N&H NELSON & HAMMONS

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Nelson & Hammons is a Louisiana medical malpractice law firm whose senior attorneys, John Hammons and Cornell Flournoy, have championed the rights of victims of serious medical malpractice for over 35 years. William W. Murray, Jr. joined the firm in 2012, and R. Clayton Christian joined in 2020. The firm emphasizes a team approach, so each client benefits from the experience and energy of every attorney.

The attorneys of Nelson & Hammons work diligently to be advocates for patients. The attorneys are committed to providing professional guidance and representation for those patients and families of patients who have been seriously injured as a result of substandard medical care. With all four attorneys emphasizing medical malpractice, Nelson & Hammons is specially situated to thoroughly investigate and effectively handle such cases. In order to better help people throughout Louisiana, the firm has offices in Shreveport and Lafayette.

The firm is proud to announce John L. Hammons has been named to the Super Lawyers list for the 17th consecutive year, and William W. Murray, Jr., has been named to the Rising Stars list for the 6th consecutive year.
